WILL KENTUCKIANS BELIEVE THIS MAN?

O'REAR SAYS BRADLEY'S TITLE TO SENATORSHIP WAS WON WITHOUT STAIN OR BLOT

What faith can honest Kentuckians put in Judge O'Rear when he lays a hand on Bradley's brow and declares that he is one Senator upon whose title to his seat there is no blot? And O'Rear was on the grounds and saw the whole while plot put through by which four men were bought outright to put Bradley over. Judge O'Rear's endorsement of Bradley's looks like he wants to get any way he can get them. It was a great play to Bradley whose support he much need powerfully had but will undoubtedly prove a boomerang.

Beginning his speech he referred to Bradley as the greatest living Kentuckian, and added—this being from the stenographic report in U.S. Senate—

"I am proud to say of him, further more, that, despite the machinations of the lobby, here is one Senator from Kentucky on whose title there is no stain and on whose record there is no blot."

All Kentucky—Democrats and Republicans alike—has been for two days against that utterance. When those words were seen in the associated press the Messenger could not believe Mr. O'Rear had been quoted correctly and called up Louisville for a verification which was promptly given.

Sitting as Chief Justice of the high court the Legislature that after a long and disastrous deadlock, elected Bradley, was Edward C. O'Rear. The scandal of Bradley's campaign for United States Senator, with the whiskey and beer lobbyists—his chief backers and supporters—and Bradley in turn looking after the liquor and beer interests—was upon every tongue.

Everybody knew who were most congenitally in the Bradley headquarters and the desperate efforts that were being made by these interests—which O'Rear professed to abhor—to encompass the defeat of the Democratic opponent of Bradley.

As Democratic votes, one by one, were plucked away from Beckham, the stench of the foul mess permeated the whole atmosphere, and when McNutt, Clifton, Ward and one other man dead, were finally induced to vote for and elect Bradley, the entire State was unpeakingly shocked.

Ever since the Berliner investigation commenced the men in this country have been gazing in their boots. Bradley was probably kept personally in ignorance of what was done for him, but those who did it are only consulted in these days of searching investigation by the knowledge that the statute of limitation now bars their offense.

Does anybody believe that Ed O'Rear did not know something of what was going on there or that he failed to give the word of the shadowed enigma he passed upon Bradley in his personally conducted convention?

Beginning his campaign with such a preposterous utterance, can the people of Kentucky be asked to believe he is sincere in any other statement? That why did he feel it necessary to apologize to Bradley when with a sweeping indictment he was pronouncing nearly every other prominent Kentucky Republican?

The sequel of that may be told in a few days, and it will be of interest if O'Rear has made the Bradley scandal an issue in this campaign. O'Rear has branded himself in the out-of-door audience as an indecent man, utterly unworthy of belief."

SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST YOUNG MEN

THREE TOBACCO MEN ARRESTED FOR STARTING ROUGH TIMES IN HUBLEE SECTION

Warrants charging disorderly conduct of a flagrant nature and one Dick Robb charging him with attempting to detain a woman against her will, were sworn out before County Judge James P. Bailey on Thursday by J. S. Britton and James Beazley, against Dick Robb, Oscar Reid and a man named Gregory. All three men are tobacco lands it is said.

The three men are said to have been very drunk on the day named and to have thrown rocks at a tennis house of Mr. Britton's and created other disorders, while Robb is said to have insulted a Mrs. May who resides in the Hubble neighborhood and to have followed her up and offered her money. She is said to have fled from him and to have run for protection in the house, with her baby in her arms, when the drunken man pursued her.

Sheriff McFarty immediately went out and arrested Robb and Reid but Gregory got wind that the officers were after him and made his escape. The trial of the men has been set for Thursday the 20th, and some sensational testimony will be brought in the cases, it is said.

Miss Rose McCormack

TO REPRESENT THE I. J. AT HUNTSVILLE.

Miss Rose McCormack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McCormack, has accepted the post of correspondent and representative of the Interior Journal at Huntsville, and her letter to the paper will begin this week. For a number of years the I. J. has been faithfully represented in the West End by Col. W. R. Williams, but his health in the past few months has seriously handicapped him, and has forced him to be away from the hustling little city considerably.

Miss McCormack who is one of the most popular young ladies in the West End will undoubtedly prove a splendid representative of the Interior Journal, which believes that it has the best corps of correspondents in the state. She has a great many friends who will furnish her the news of their visitors and their goings and comings. She will also represent the Interior Journal for advertising and job work and respects the West End business men to give her their oral notices to go in her letter each week.

Sunday Killing

NEAR MILLEDGEVILLE OVER A GAME OF CRAPS—BOTH PARTIES NEGROES.

About 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon John Blain shot and a most instantly killed Master Tom, another negro on the road leading from Milledgeville to Moreland. The negroes, with several others were indulging in a crap game and Blain charged that Tom drew a razor after they had bad words and attempted to cut him, when he Blain grabbed a pistol from his brother and fired one shot at Tom, the ball taking effect in his abdomen and causing almost instant death. Blain telephoned to Sheriff McFarty who went to Milledgeville Sunday night and brought the negro to jail here. His examining trial is set for Thursday both parties to the killing are worth less characters.

Destroyed By Fire

HOME AND BARN OF F. E. BRAWNER BURNED DOWN.

The house and barn of F. E. Brawner, a farmer living near Mason's Gap, were entirely consumed by fire Thursday night at about half past nine midnight. Mr. Brawner was not at home at the time and the house was nearly ready to fall in when the fire was discovered by Mrs. Brawner. Albert Skidmore, a brother of Mrs. Brawner, was in the home at the time, and worked heroically to save what he could.

Some beds and other furniture which were secured were soon afterwards burned.

The barn, which was a good one, containing a lot of oats and grain and three buggies and a lot of farming implements, was quickly consumed.

Mrs. Brawner and her child and the young man had a narrow escape, the infant being nearly suffocated and has been sick ever since the fire.

Carson Case

GOES OVER TO NEXT TERM OF COURT AT LIBERTY.

MISS NEWLAND SUSTAINS BAD INJURY

FALLS UPON ROCK WHILE STEPPING FROM BUGGY AND BREAKS CHIN BONE.

Stepping from her buggy in the dark late Saturday evening, as she thought, up the stone which stands in front of her father's gate, Miss Kate Newland, missed her footing and fell, her chin striking upon the sharp edge of the rock, which cracked her chin bone in half, and fearfully dislocated both of her jaw bones driving them both far up under the skin above her eyes. Her injuries were most painful and serious, and it required several hours' effort on the part of physicians to get the jaw bone properly returned to its socket and the chin bone reset. So delicate and difficult an operation was it, that her teeth had to be bound together with fine dental wire, so that she would be unable to move her lower jaw the slightest and thereby prevent the dislocated joints from healing improperly.

Miss Newland is one of the most popular and attractive young ladies of Stanford, and she has the sympathy of the entire community in her suffering. The accident was a very peculiar one, and would never had happened had she not misjudged the location of the stone upon which it was customary to alight from vehicles stopping at the gate of her father, T. D. Newland, the well known grocer, at his home on the Sonderup pike. She thought that she had judged the position of the rock correctly and so stepped off into space, falling as she did so, with her chin just striking the edge of the stone...

So tightly are her jaws bound together, that she is unable to partake of the slightest food and has to be fed through a tube with liquids entirely, and will have to subsist on this kind of diet for several weeks probably. And she is also unable to speak a word. Physicians have made her as comfortable as possible but her predicament is very inconvenient and painful.

FARM FOR SALE

HUSTONVILLE

JUNCTION CITY

For Attractive Visitor

MISS LILLIE EADS DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINS IN THE WEST END.

One of the most refined and pleasant social gatherings seen in the vicinity of Hustonville was the picnic under the auspices of the Presbyterian church at the home of Mr. Will Newell last week. Immediately on arrival the guests were met by one of the committee and were seated on rustic benches when an elegant supper was on the Hustonville pike.

This farm contains one hundred and fifty acres, one hundred of which is in fine state of cultivation. Over one thousand dollars worth of recent crop can be cut from this place, also a lot of walnut timber.

A splendid stock pond fed by a never failing spring.

About sixty acres of this farm is especially adapted to the raising of hemp and tobacco.

New, five room house, just completed. One mile from church and school. One large tobacco barn, built last fall, also good stock barn. Ten acres of young orchard.

This is a splendid home and must be seen to be appreciated. If no sale is made this farm will be rented on the same date, to the highest bidder for the year of 1912. A. H. Root. 55-td.
